Martha's Vineyard Film Center / Featherstone Center for the Arts
Feldman Family Artspace 2026 Exhibition Guidelines

The Martha's Vineyard Film Center's lobby is open to display Island artists' work. Featherstone Center for the Arts manages the gallery for the Martha's Vineyard Film Center. Artists interested in exhibiting their work in 2026 should submit an electronic application to: ann@featherstoneart.org

Applications can be downloaded from the Featherstone web site:
featherstoneart.org

The application requires: a resume/bio, artist statement and 3 to 5 digital examples of the work you intend to exhibit:

Submissions will be juried by a committee.The selection committee will choose ten artists and two alternates for this year.

Selected artists will then be scheduled for specific show dates throughout the year. Please review the 2026 calendar months and in your application note any that are impossible for you. Please do not request a specific month as the slots will be filled in such a way as to balance the various mediums of the selected artists.

Work will hang for 3 or 4 weeks depending upon the season. The art will be hung by the artist under the supervision and with the assistance of the Featherstone Gallery Manager.

Art work must be framed and/or presented in a professional manner in keeping with the high standards of the Martha's Vineyard Film Center and Featherstone Center for the Arts. All work must be wired in order to accommodate the hanging system at the Film Center, which is the same system used at Featherstone.

Individual labels with prices or a price list and an artist biography will also be displayed with the work; such information to be provided by the artist no later than one week before the date set for hanging the work.

All sales will be made through Featherstone Center for the Arts. The sales commission will be 60% to the artist. All works must remain up throughout the duration of the show. Red dots will be placed near any works that have been sold over the duration of the show.

The Film Center will advertise the show on its social media channels and by direct e-mail to members.

Featherstone will advertise the show on its social media channels and e-newsletter. Any additional mailings or newspaper announcements or a formal opening and/or refreshments are the responsibility of the artist and need to be coordinated with the management of the Film Center.

We will make every effort to protect all work. The Film Center is a secure building with a burglar alarm and sprinklers. Art is insured up to $10,000.

If you have questions or need additional information, please email or phone:
